Rumplestiltskin

RUMPLESTILTSKIN
(At FST)

Begins October 13, 2009
Adapted by Beth Duda & Adam Ratner
Based on the fairytale by The Brothers
Grimm

The Play that Sets the Example!

A modern twist to a classic fairy tale, Rumplestiltskin is a story of a young maiden whose father claims she can spin straw into gold to win the king's heart (and his kingdom). She and her sister are forced to carry out the impossible task or face dire consequences (like a permanent trip to the dungeon) should they fail. Caught in a web of deceit and greed, the sisters must rely on the dubious assistance of a strange fellow who offers to solve all of their problems for a very costly price.

Rave Reviews

FST Teaching Artist with Students at Emma E. Booker Elementary, 2009

“Again your performers KNOCKED THE SOCKS OFF of our students and teachers. It is amazing that FST finds an entertaining way to instruct and motivate our students to write their own plays.”

-Laura France, Principal
Kelley Smith Elementary, Palatka, Florida

“Our teachers want to do different events every year, so that they never do the same things two years in a row; except they insist that every year they do the FST program. You’re the only one they want to do every single year.”

-Barbara Salkow
Seagate Elementary, Naples, Florida

“Your artists are so ACCEPTING yet challenge the children to be more.”

-Linda Zaudtke, Leader
Timbercrest Elementary, DeLand, Florida

“Students in my class are deeply involved in writing. They write about what they know, feel, and love. They enjoy using their imaginations to create a ‘masterpiece’ that is truly their own. Participating each year is a joy!”

- Doris Byal, 2007 FST Educator of the Year
McNeal Elementary, Manatee County

“Classroom teachers rave about the BENEFITS of this program to develop CRITICAL THINKING and VO-CABULARY.”

-Cindy Lippert, Fine Arts Coordinator
School Board of Sarasota County

“YOU REALLY WANT TO MAKE US WRITE! Our teachers head right back to those classrooms with students filled with ideas anxious to get them on paper. The memories of your characters and feelings we experience through them are priceless. Thank you!”

-Sue Thomas, Lower School Director
St. Stephen’s School, Bradenton, Florida
