REHEARSALS ARE UNDERWAY FOR THE REGIONAL PREMIERE OF “NEXT TO NORMAL”

(Sarasota, FL) —A talented cast, led by Broadway star STACIA FERNANDEZ, is preparing for the opening of the contemporary rock musical Next to Normal at Florida Studio Theatre. Performances begin in the Keating Theatre November 2 - January 7.

The actors remark that they’ve been moved by the music, the material, and the emotions of this project. Even Artistic Director Richard Hopkins refers to it as “a play with music” because of its emotional-depth.

“What’s most exciting about working on Next to Normal, is getting to work with material that has so many layers: emotionally, musically, physically,” said James LaRosa, who returns to FST after starring in ALTAR BOYZ. “It is really rare to encounter a musical that you have to use a technique of acting called realism, as opposed to the heightened sense of acting you find in most musicals. I think it challenges a lot of people’s traditional idea of what a ‘musical’ is. You’ll have moments to laugh and you’ll have moments to cry.”

Next to Normal is an emotional powerhouse of a musical about a suburban American family trying to take care of themselves and each other. It features music by Tom Kitt, with book and lyrics by Brian Yorkey. It won the 2010 Pulitzer Prize for Drama and was nominated for 11 Tony Awards. Next to Normal was chosen as “one of the year’s TEN best” by major critics around the country including the Los Angeles Times, Washington Post, Rolling Stone and The New York Times. “A work of muscular grace and power. It is something much more than a feel-good musical; it is a feel-everything musical.” - The New York Times

Mr. Hopkins began his professional theatre career as a resident actor with the Asolo State Theatre in Sarasota, Florida. He was a founding director of what is now American Stage Company in St. Petersburg and served as its Producing Director from 1974-1980. Mr. Hopkins has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Virginia Commonwealth University. Mr. Hopkins is the recipient of numerous awards including the Arts Leadership Award from the Sarasota Arts Council & the Richard G. Fallon Award for Artistic Excellence from the Florida Professional Theatre Association.

The rest of the creative team includes: AIMEE RADICS as Music Director, STEPHEN HOPE will assist with Musical Staging, DALE JORDAN as Scenic Designer, SARA J. HINKLEY as Costume Designer, DAVID M. UPTON as Lighting Designer, and ERIC STAHLHAMMER as Sound Designer.

Next to Normal had a surprising and highly unlikely route to Broadway. The musical began in 1998 as a 10-minute workshop sketch Kitt and Yorkey developed in their first year at a BMI Lehman Engel Musical Theatre Workshop in Manhattan, about a woman undergoing electroshock therapy, and its impact on her family, called Feeling Electric. Out of that idea, the show was born. After a debut in the 2005 New York Musical Theatre Festival, it eventually reincarnated as Next to Normal.

The revamped musical opened at Off-Broadway's Second Stage Theatre on February 13, 2008. Producer David Stone, who had been guiding the musical since 2005, took the unexpected step of bringing the show to Washington D.C.'s Arena Stage where it was significantly reworked again, and then back to New York and to Broadway, where it opened to rave reviews on April 15, 2009. This unusual trajectory from a New York Off-Broadway premiere to an out-of-town regional theatre engagement and then back to New York has been unprecedented.

Next to Normal is only the 8th musical in American history to be honored with the Pulitzer Prize for Drama (reserved mostly for American plays). The Pulitzer jury recognized Next to Normal for its subject matter and stated that it “expands the scope of subject matter for musicals.” The last musical to win the honor was Jonathan Larson’s Rent in 1996.

All 4 shows of the Mainstage Season – Next to Normal, The Last Romance, Next Fall and Jericho – will be presented at both FST’s Keating Theatre and Gompertz Theatre. Single tickets range from $19-$40 for regular performances. A subscription to all 4 plays of the Mainstage Season ranges from $39-$61. Both subscription tickets and single tickets may be purchased from the FST Box Office in person or by calling (941) 366-9000 or online at www.FloridaStudioTheatre.org.

ABOUT FLORIDA STUDIO THEATRE

Known as Sarasota’s Contemporary Theatre, Florida Studio Theatre was founded in 1973 by Jon Spelman. Starting out as a small touring company, FST traveled to places such as migrant camps and prisons. The company eventually settled down into a permanent home, acquiring the former Woman’s Club building – now renamed the Keating Theatre. In the years that followed, Florida Studio Theatre established itself as a major force in American Theatre, presenting contemporary theatre in its three theatre venues: the Keating Theatre, the Goldstein Cabaret and its newest space, the Gompertz Theatre.

Even with its growth, Florida Studio Theatre remains firmly committed to making the arts accessible and affordable to a broad-based audience. Under Richard Hopkins, Artistic Director and CEO, FST develops theatre that speaks to our living, evolving, and dynamically changing world. As FST grows and expands, it continues to provide audiences with challenging, contemporary drama and innovative programs.
