

Player Four #1 (Blue Fairy)

BLUE FAIRY enters.

begin

BLUE FAIRY

Oh Pinocchio! What have you done?

PINOCCHIO

The Fox and the Cat told me if I planted my money it would grow... They promised!

BLUE FAIRY

Swindled and bamboozled. Geppetto's coins have been stolen.

PINOCCHIO

Oh no! But why?

BLUE FAIRY

If I don't miss my guess, that mangy fox and that squinting cat are a foul lot.

PINOCCHIO

But- They seemed so nice... And they sang for me... And they promised me riches!

BLUE FAIRY

You learned an important and very costly lesson, Pinocchio. If something sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

PINOCCHIO

I'm so ashamed...

BLUE FAIRY

I shall take you back home. Your Papa is certainly very worried about you.

PINOCCHIO

I can't face him! I lost his money, and I don't have a book. He will be angry with me.

BLUE FAIRY

Perhaps, but he loves you Pinocchio. He will be happy to learn that no harm has befallen you. Geppetto is your Papa and will always help you. What have you learned from this adventure?

PINOCCHIO

I've learned there are some pretty tricky people in this world...

PINOCCHIO (CONT'D)

Then I'm sure I will be very close to the seaside! Look at all that water! Papa? Papa?! Do you hear me? It's me Pinocchio! How will I ever find him? Hey! What are those bubbles over there?

Bubbles blow on stage as FABIANA enters as TUNNY FISH. She has a feathery headdress that resembles a dorsal fin and large flowing feather fans on her hands like an angel fish.

TUNNY FISH

It's okay, okay? There's lots of water out here... I'm sure we'll find him. I'll swim this way and see if I can scope out your pappy! Hasta la pasta!

TUNNY FISH 'swims' away off stage exiting.

end

PINOCCHIO

Maybe if I swim out a ways I can help that nice Tunny Fish find Papa.

PINOCCHIO 'wades out' into the water.

PINOCCHIO

Papa! Papa it's me! Pinocchio! Where are you Papa?
